IN HONOR OF THE VILLAGE PROJECT

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 15, 2013

Mr. FARR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Village Project for five years of exemplary service. Founded in 2008, the Village Project sought to fill the gap in mental health and family counseling services geared toward the African American community on the Monterey Peninsula in particular and the broader Monterey Bay Area as a whole.

The Village Project was born from the efforts and love of many people. But it was Mel and Regina Mason who truly made it happen. They designed the project and spent countless hours in chasing down all the myriad of clinical, fiscal, administrative, and other details that turned the idea of the Village Project into a reality. Indeed, it is their love and dedication to the people of the Monterey Bay region that infuse every aspect of the Village Project and has made it such a success in its short history.

The Village Project provides culturally-appropriate services to the African American population in order to address that community's unmet needs. While it focuses on African Americans, the Village Project is dedicated to providing services to anyone who needs them. It offers mental health counseling, a parenting program, several academic support groups for youth, as well as support for community-building.

Mel Mason, who serves as the organization's executive director and primary counselor, ensures that the Village Project works in partnership with community organizations, schools, faith-based institutions, and other agencies to collectively support children and families of all cultures. It is a true measure of its broad base of support that the organization's board is a who's who of community leaders who see many of the goals of their own work realized in the efforts of the Village Project.

Mr. Speaker, I know I speak for the whole House in congratulating the Village Project on its five year anniversary, expressing our gratitude for all of the good accomplished in that time, and our best wishes for the years of community service to come.
